

Left alliance to join province govt. in Province No. 2

Parliamentary party leader of Province No. 2 of CPN (UML) Satya Narayan Mandal has said that province 2 is likely to have the government with participation of the left alliance.

At a program in Rajbiraj on Monday, UML's standing committee member Mandal said that efforts are ongoing for the formation of the province government with participation of the left alliance for the development and prosperity of the province.

"Co-work of all parties is needed to make the province prosperous and developed," he added. Likewise, National Assembly Member and UML's central committee member Suman Raj Pyakurel said that efforts are on for the formation of government with participation of the left alliance in province no. 2 and central government along with participation of Rastriya Janata Party Nepal and Federal Socialist Forum Nepal.

Similarly, former Irrigation Minister and Maoist Center's leader Umesh Yadav said that development works of physical infrastructure have been initiated in Madhesh, thanks to the budget allocated by the KP Sharma Oli-led government in the past.
